

MISSION WORKERS HOLD STIRRING SESSION AT WINSTON-ALEM; DR. A. A. GRAHAM, SECRETARY, RETIRED

Report of Dr. C. S. Brown, President, Showed Remarkable Record In Foreign Mission

Achievements For Convention

Winston-Salem, N. C., Sept. 3.— The retirement of Rev. A. A. Graham as Corresponding Secretary, the raising of more than $25,000 for foreign missions, and the report of the statistics of the convention, were discussed during a thirty-year period amounting to nearly a half million dollars featured the annual meeting of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention held here August 28-31 at First Baptist Church.

All officers were reelected with the exception of Dr. Graham, who because of ill health, was retired and voted a home at the Headquarters Building in Washington and $100 a month. Dr. J. H. Randolph was selected to succeed him.

Of the amounts raised during the thirty years of the Convention's existence amounting to nearly a million dollars, $321,373.90 is credited to the Convention and $104,104.43 to the Women's Auxiliary, which, along with the Young Peoples' Department, met with the Convention.

Rev. J. H. Hughes, a former pastor of Central, but now located in Orange, N. J., responded most pleasingly to the hearty address of welcome.

The annual addresses of the president, Dr. C. S. Brown, showed much had been done and much more was needed. Mrs. A. B. Randolph, president of the Auxiliary laid stress on the necessity of a Missionary Training School wherein those who aspire to the high calling of work on the foreign fields may be trained for service.

Helpful addresses were made by Rev. J. Thos. Reid, Huntington, W.
Va., who spoke on "Missionary Outlook of the Lott Carey Convention," and by Rev. E. E. Smith, Portsmouth, whose subject was "Cooperation and Unity Among Negro Baptist in Missionary Work."

The Convention Sermon was preached by Dr. J. C. White, Columbia, S. C., the annual sermon, Dr.
W. D. Jarvis, Washington, D. C., the missionary sermon by Rev. F. B.
Mitchell, formerly of Portsmouth, Va., now of Germantown, Penna., and the Auxiliary sermon by Dr. A. W.
Brown, Richmond.

A quartette from First Calvary

Church, Norfolk, under the leadership of Mr. Jerry Anderson, was present and by the splendid music it rendered added much to the convention program.

Special addresses were made to the Auxiliary by Miss Clara I. Cox (white) High Point, N. C. Miss Sarah Williamson and Minnie B. Lons, returned missionaries. Rev. Chas Bryant, another returned worker, addressed the convention.

The program rendered by the young people on Wednesday was both pleasing and profitable. This department is under the supervision of Mrs. O.
S. Bullock and is doing much toward training the young people for future usefulness.

Peace and harmony prevailed at this meeting and the spirit of Christian brotherhood was much in evidence.

Too much praise can not be given the people of Winston-Salem for their many courtesies shown. The doors of Mount Zion Church were thrown open to the Auxiliary and it was here their meeting was held. On Thursday p. m., a sight-seeing trip was given the delegates. This was made possible by a larger number of fine cars donated for the occasion.

The next meeting of the Lott Carey will be held in Columbia, S. C.

STAR

INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

MAY 7 1928

NEGROES TO SERVE AS MISSIONARIES

American Negroes are to carry the Christian religion back to the people of their race in Africa, according to plans announced by the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church.

When the Rev. Irvin W. Underhill, a senior at Princeton Theological seminary, and his fiancée, Miss Susan Theresa Reynolds of Philadelphia, sail for Kribi, West Africa, soon after their marriage this summer, they will be the first Negro Presbyterians to serve as missionaries in Africa since before the civil war.